

Hamilton County Democratic

The County Convention of the untitled Hamilton County met at the old stamping ground, Carthage, Saturday morning—that is, we mean to say a portion of them met, consisting of the untitled Vaillandiamers, for there were few others who thought it incumbent upon them to visit the grove at the ancient city.

Carthage were Democracy was wont to run rampant, causing a scarcity of Old Bourbon and raising the price of pure unadulterated rotgut. A Convention at Carthage used to mark an era in the politics of the county, and a Carthage nomination was about equivalent to an election, but "times are not now as they used to be" and we failed to show up in 1902.

were wont to observe at the Convention, yesterday, the old familiar faces which were wont to smile and frown at the great gatherings of the uninitiated. They were not all. Some have gone to the land of the Hereafter—peace to their manes. Some have joined themselves to other parties, and have been rafted out of the great Democratic—thing, have changed materially during the past year or so, for politics like poverty makes strange bedfellows. The Milleden element strongly predominated in the Convention. The Mac's and the O's were in the majority, and went it strong for Vallandigham and Pugh, for aint John Drough, Charles Anderson, and the men—that they

At 9 o'clock, there was but a slim attendance of others save delegates and candidates, at a later hour the Convention was temporarily organized by calling Geo. W. Martin, of Columbia township, to the chair, and appointing Geo. F. Hoefler, Jacob, David, and William Brown, as Secretaries. The several committees were appointed. C. J. W. Smith, ex-sheriff of Hamilton County, was selected permanent Chairman, and of course, as the newspapers say "returned thanks in an appropriate speech for the honor."

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was quite lengthy, and we are necessarily compelled to give only its main features which we do in a nut-shell:

Adoption of the Democratic State Convention's platform.

Censure the President for refusing to permit the Great Banished to return to his native land.

Denounces the Conscription Act, and the $300 clause, and calls on the City Council to appropriate money to purchase the exemption of all conscripts—which, of course, the City Council will do—in a horn.

Laments over the extreme poverty of the National Treasury. Indorses Vallandigham and Pugh, and in the next breath sympathizes with the soldiers in the field.

Of course the resolutions were received with appropriate cheers—particularly those which indorsed Vallandigham and Pugh.

that were said and done. Suffice it to say the Fallandighamers had it all their own way, and the following was the result of the Herculean labors of the Convention.

For Treasurer—K. A. Cox, by acclamation.
Probate Judge—Alexander Paddock.
Clerk of Court—Adam Hornung.
County Commissioner—William Craved.
Senators—John Schiff, Joseph F. Wright,
and Rev. Isaac N. Wise.
Representatives—Milton Saylor, by acclamation;
Dr. Crooksank, do., Joseph Seiter, do.,
Rev. G. W. Maley, Capt. Jas. Carlin, John M.
Kelley, F. X. Breaunstein, Henry Ives, Dr. E.

Paddack received 197 votes, Isaac J. Miller 25, Horning 204, Wm. McMaster 129.

There were 312 delegates present, some of whom fancied themselves at least six. Paddack asked that his decision on the habes corpus should be sustained, and the delegates swore they'd sustain him.

Mr. Bayler at first declined, because he could not afford to go to Columbus, he said—(rather calculate he won't have to go.) Some of the delegates said they'd pay his way, and Milton confessed he'd go—the people have at so decided.

Wonder how the Milstens will like a Methodist erson and Jewish Rabbi on their ticket. Velly the Democracy are doing strange things in order to secure the election of their candidates. The Convention closed with three cheers for Allandigham and Pugh, and three for the State and County ticket. No excitement, and no big pouches.

On the 30th inst., at Hoving house, in Xenia,
T. T. Marshall, Esq., Mr. CAMDEN SHADLER to Miss SARAH JANE BENNETT, both of Jefferson township, Greene County.

Drs. Clark & McClellan
Tender their Professional services to the citizens
Xenia and vicinity.
Office over Thirkield's store, opposite the Hoving house.

THE NATIONAL UNION

Is published every Sunday morning, at Cincinnati, Ohio, and is a thoroughly loyal and union sheet. The following are the

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Single copies, per year.....	$1 00
Single copies, six months.....	.60
Single copies, three months.....	.40
Subs. of five, per year.....	$ 5 00
Entered by carriers.....	5 Cents per week.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One square one time, 50 cents—25 cents for each subsequent insertion.

[illegible]

To Business Men.
Please read the above to me of advertisements, and send your practical proof of encouragement to the "National Union," and you will be amply rewarded for the investment, as the "Union" is read by at least fifty thousand persons weekly. Publishers and all who are in the habit of advertising will also give attention to our rates.

To All Loyalists.
All who love the defenders of our glorious State and Stripes will not forget how pleased they will be to receive a free paper regularly from the office of the Boston Herald. Send your children's names.

National Union Association.

It should be immediately. Reader, if you have an Association in working order please send to the stress of the "National Union" the names of officers and all prominent loyalists, that we may add a specimen copy of the "Union," which is designed to be an organ for all Union organizations which may desire to let us know the degree of the sense in regard to our nation's interests in their callouts, or any matters which may defy the glorious defenders of the old flag and their friends everywhere as the "National Union" is to be a paper for the soldier and sailor as well as the politician and civilian. The Association in this city is doing a good work—why should it not be so in

Postmasters and News Agents, Gentlemen, will receive an extra copy for carrying five copies ad upward. If you cannot carry it to your interest to cartage for "Nation-Union" please mail some live person who will it for the cause of Liberty and Union which we worse. The good will of all Loyalists are craved.

ENOS B. REED,
 Editor and Proprietor.
 CINCINNATI, O.